

PRESS RELEASE

Palm Bay, FL – January 26, 2009

KATHRYN TOOMEY OF ONPOINT SOLUTIONS GROUP, INC. BECOMES A CONTRIBUTING AUTHOR FOR INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS TRAINING, INC.

Kathryn Toomey, Founder and President of OnPoint Solutions Group, Inc. (OnPoint), a full service trade compliance solutions provider, has become a contributing author for the internet compliance training firm, International Business Training, Inc. (IBT), a sister company of InterMart, Inc. of Eagan, MN.

InterMart began in May 1995, as an international trading company marketing, selling and shipping products from the United States to Japan. In the course of doing business, they created the popular Shipping Solutions® export documentation software that allows companies to create their export documents up to 80% faster than before. Because it was the first easy-to-use and affordable export software solution, Shipping Solutions quickly became America's #1 export software.

In 1999, the founder and president of InterMart, David Noah, created International Business Training (IBT) to meet the industry's training compliance needs. This included IBT hiring well-respected industry consultants to write regular monthly columns for the website on topics ranging from export marketing and sales to export and import documentation and procedures to letters of credit and other forms of international payments.

In the fall of 2008, IBT hired Kathryn Toomey of OnPoint Solutions Group, Inc. to become IBT's first and only ITAR contributing author. While Kathryn's expertise covers more than just ITAR, both parties recognized that IBT's clientele base could benefit from Kathryn's ITAR expertise and help the international trade community understand how to navigate through this complex and challenging regulation.

On January 26, 2009, Kathryn's first ITAR article will be published and both parties are looking forward to helping the industry with their ITAR needs.

Kathryn is a well seasoned trade professional with a strong background in EAR, ITAR, FAR/DFAR, FTR, AES, CBP, OFAC and related trade regulations. Because of her knowledgeable, cost effective and practitioner based approach in compliance management, Kathryn's services have been sought after by many businesses involved in international trade for the past decade. She has provided compliance consulting services to a variety of Fortune 100 & 500 companies and small-medium business start-ups. Kathryn helps businesses overcome their compliance challenges; increase their international customer base and retain profits; avoid fines, penalties and other civil and criminal actions; and help businesses retain their trade privileges to give them a competitive advantage.

Kathryn Toomey, President of OnPoint Solutions Group, Inc., is a member of the Society for International Affairs, Society For Human Resources, Defense Connection, Information Security Group, CUSECO Group, and an avid volunteer for numerous charities throughout the community.
